In the past four years we have learned a great deal about ourselves and each other. When we look back, we will remember our teachers, our classes, our school events, and especially our friends. Underlying these memories, and conceivably enriching them, will be the spirit we created and acquired. These years will perhaps be remembered as the happiest and proudest years of our lives. As freshmen, we found Brockton High to be overwhelming but we soon adapted to and became a part of the school. Many of us got involved in the clubs and activities, made new friends, and experienced a sense of belonging which was actually instilled in us from our very first day here. We began to involve ourselves in the spirit that was already at B.H.S. as well as create our own sense of pride. Our second year, as sophomores, we were confident of ourselves and very proud of our school. We blended together as we got involved in more social events such as the Friday Night Dances. We participated in our first pep-rally at B.H.S. and attended sports events. Our spirit was also acknowledge on the Black and Red Spirit Days. The "pride was alive" especially when we participated in the "1982" Super Bowl. Beginning our junior year, we had many things to look forward to. Although it was one of the toughest, it was probably the best so far. We took on more academic responsibility during this difficult year. We met the challenges of taking the SAT's and Achievement Tests. We united together in the march to City Hall to show our concern as well as pride for our school. Our Junior Prom, held in the spring of 1983, was definitely an uplifting and spirited event. It was also an indication that our third year at B.H.S. was coming to an end.

This brought us to our final and most important year, our senior year. We became more mature as we took on the responsibility of setting examples for the underclassmen. We experienced the anxiety and apprehension as we contemplated what we would do in the future. Anticipation also grew as the final events such as our Semi-Formal, Senior Prom and graduation approached us.

There are many events we can recall that helped us acknowledge the spirit we had in our school. We can look back with fond memories to the close friendships and good times we experienced at B.H.S. After graduation, we will go our separate ways, seeking our individual aspirations. As we continue on with our own lives, we will carry with us the reputation of coming from a school of winners and achievers. Despite this separation we, the "class of 1984" will always cherish the total experience of being a part of Brockton High School.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

SUPERINTENDENT

Dr. Thomas Whalen

The Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Thomas J. Whalen, has spent many years working for the benefit of the students. He has tried to maintain the quality of Brockton High even under all the budget cuts. Many have complimented Dr. Walen for this fine job.

Dr. Walen feels the best preparation the Brockton School System has given its graduates is its persistance in the English department. He feels that one of the main criticisms of high school graduates is the weakness in communication skills. With a greater knowledge of English, the graduates will have a better chance in whatever field they pursue.

Dr. Whalen says that another important aspect in the school is the extra-curricular activities it has to offer. Music, drama and athletics have been an important component in the past couple of years. They have helped tremendously in rekindling the school spirit at Brockton High School.

As a final note upon leaving the Brockton School System, Dr. Whalen states he is very proud of the students at Brockton High. He says that Brockton is very fortunate to have the kind of students it has. He feels that Brockton High students are the best in academics, in citizenship, and in school spirit.

Elise Gilbert

PRINCIPAL

Mr. Robert Reagan

As principal of Brockton High School, Mr. Robert Reagan is responsible for insuring that the academic services abide with the criterion instilled by Brockton High School. He is also very dedicated to the student body and by maintaining an open-door policy, principal Reagan confirms his involvement and dedication to the students.

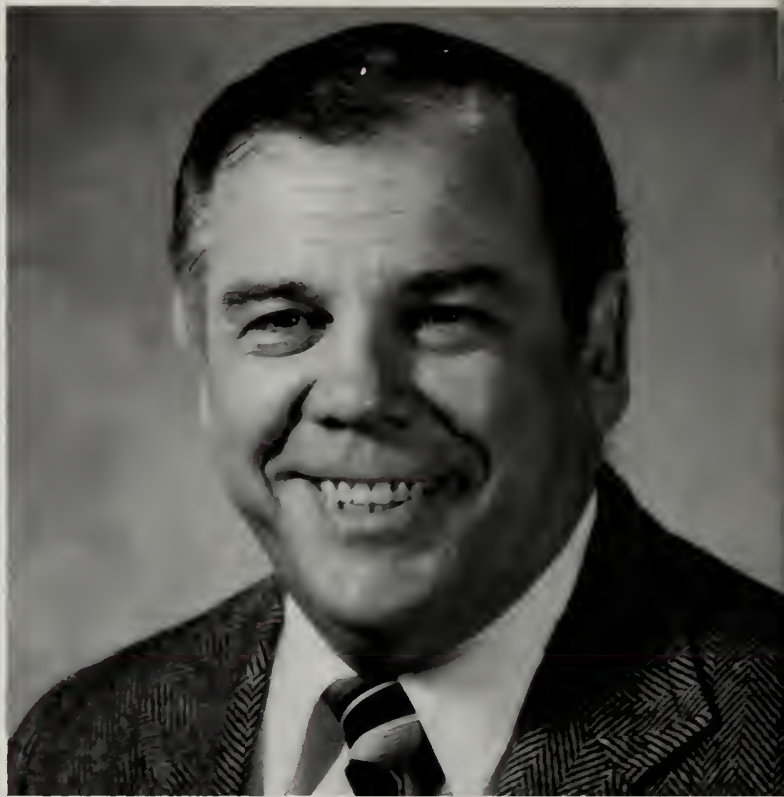

Mr. Reagan is very proud of Brockton High School. He believes that one of the most important aspects in the high school is the one in working with other people. Although Brockton High School is large, he maintains it is the atmosphere that helps prepare one for the future.

The principal also believes that the variety in the curriculum is very beneficial to the students. It allows interest. This offers the students the chance to excel in a subject they enjoy with ambition and pride. Principal Reagan also reminds us of the overall opportunity of going to a high school having a reputation of being winners in all aspects including scholastics, Fine Arts and Athletics.

Susan J. Marble

Dr. Thomas Cibotti- Green Housemaster

Mr. Mario DiMarzo- Red Housemaster

Dr. Thomas Cibotti is the housemaster of the Green Building. As housemaster, he is responsible for the supervision of the house faculty and to keep the Green House running smoothly. Dr. Cibotti feels that Brockton High School has a strong faculty and well-equipped facilities that are able to realize and satisfy the goals and ambitions of each student. "The teachers are here to give and the students are here to take and learn".

Dr. Cibotti feels that most of the pride comes individually from each student. From there, it spills into the school pride, "a contagious strong sense of pride". Dr. Cibotti is proud to work here. He has been a part of the Brockton High School for 22 years. He has worked in every building; so when he talks about pride it includes not just the Green building, but the whole school.

Susan J. Marble

Mr. Mario DiMarzo is the Housemaster for the Red Building. He has proudly held this position for thirteen years. As housemaster, he supervises the houses faculty and student body of which he is extremely pleased and proud.

Mr. DiMarzo believes that each student is offered a fair opportunity to realize his potential. He feels that the faculty is a model for the students. He hopes the students recognize the opportunities available to them.

To the seniors Mr. DiMarzo would like to say; "Strive to realize your greatest potential". The key to success is to come to know yourself; to realize your own potential; to know your own strengths as well as your weaknesses; to work to improve and broaden your strengths; to set goals and to achieve those goals.

Susan J. Marble

Mr. Chris Argys- Azure Housemaster

Dr. Claire Appling- Yellow Housemaster

Students of the Azure House possess a special pride in their building which stems from their Housemaster, Mr. Chris Argys. The students know he cares a great deal about them. They feel that he is the best housemaster ever and have a great deal of respect for him. The housemaster's duty is to manage the house faculty and to deal with any academic or personal problems which might arise within the Azure Building.

Mr. Argys is extremely proud of his position. "Pride is Alive" in the Azure House. He "likes everything about this place." He has been the housemaster of the Azure since the school opened and served one year in the same position at the old Brockton High School. Mr. Argys is proud to be recognized as being associated with the Azure Building and Brockton High School as a whole. In closing, he would like to wish: "Best of luck to the Seniors".

Susan J. Marble

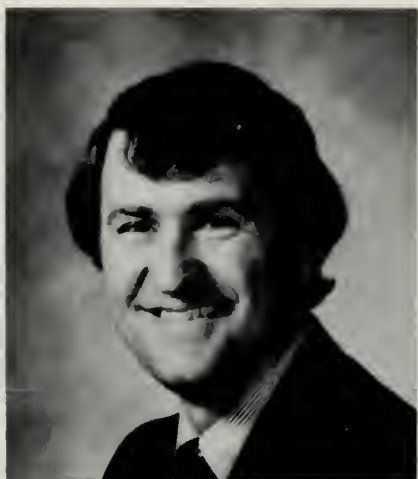

Dr. Appling has, in preparing us for life, tried to build habits of responsibility through stressing the need for punctuality, consistency of attendance of school and to class for academic success. Self-discipline, she feels, is necessary to prosper in life.

She instills pride in the yellow house through activities, such as Yellow House Day when everyone wears yellow, and through contests. Dr. Appling encourages participation of students to seek class and senate offices and promotes "Pride is Alive at Brockton High".

In advising seniors, she hopes they will be successful in their choice and preparation for a career and that they will have the ability to accept the challenges of life and to find workable solutions to problems. Dr. Appling trusts that students will show concern for people as human beings and be sensitive to their needs. She is confident that they will show understanding and concern for others.

In her spare time, Dr. Appling enjoys playing mostly classical music on the piano, reading, embroidery, swimming and traveling.

Cheri Pessin

Mr. Richard Zoino, Green Assistant Housemaster

Mr. Richard Zoino is the Assistant Housemaster for the Green Building. It is his job to insure proper student behavior and school attendance for the Green House. Mr. Zoino cares for the students and helps them with the difficulties they may encounter with the "system". He helps the students in anyway he can, and tries to relate "to where they're coming from." He has always kept the positive attitude needed for his particular job.

Mr. Zoino considers the graduating class to be a very positive, mature and motivated class. He believes that with the right attitudes and effort the class of "1984" will succeed. Mr. Zoino extends his congratulations and reminds the senior class not to forget the pride that we all share in our school.

Eileen Paul

Mr. Charles Puliafico, Azure Assistant Housemaster

What we learn through discipline is somewhat more important than what we learn academically, say Mr. Puliafico. Self discipline is very essential in our lives. He feels being punctual, hardworking and dependable are qualities necessary to accomplish anything in life. People can take pride in the fact that their actions reflect their total education. Mr. Puliafico is certain that succeeding in anything is a reliable confidence builder. He is convinced that anything worth doing is worth doing well.

Hobbies such as tennis, golf and being a football official occupy Mr. Puliafico's time when not working.

Cheri Pessin

Mr. Kenneth Cardone, Red Assistant Housemaster

As Assistant Housemaster, Mr. Kenneth Cardone is responsible for maintaining the discipline and school attendance of the Red House students. It is also his job to confer with the students and to identify and remediate any problems that may arise.

Mr. Cardone hopes the students will strive towards bettering themselves. To the class of "1984" he extends his congratulations. He also feels that the senior class is a motivated class and has become a part of the tradition of Brockton High School. Mr. Cardone also wishes that the graduating class will become truly happy and successful and to remember: "Do well, life is but a second of eternity."

Eileen Paul

Mr. Raymond Bussolari, Yellow Assistant Housemaster

Mr. Bussolari is the Assistant Housemaster for the Yellow Building. He has held this position since the new Brockton High School opened. It is his responsibility to maintain discipline and school attendance in the Yellow House. Mr. Bussolari is also responsible for helping students with dilemmas they encounter.

As Assistant Housemaster, Mr. Bussolari hopes most students come out of Brockton High School with the ability to cope and succeed with the outside world. He feels that Brockton High School has the facilities to accommodate the students. The students must take advantage of these facilities. Mr. Bussolari sincerely hopes that each student has achieved some goal or accomplishment here at Brockton High School.

Susan Nardi

The sudden death of Mr. Robert J. Bethony, in our junior year, came as a great shock to the B.H.S. faculty and student body. He was a special and unique individual and there is no one with whom to compare to him. He was a social studies teacher at B.H.S. for over twenty years, and his sociology classes were some of the more popular classes in the school. Bob Bethony was full of care and concern, empathy and devotion. He was respected mostly for the way he treated students. "He talked with the students not at them." He tried to teach them to help themselves and to realize their own fate was in their hands. Our beloved Mr. Bethony left a legacy of respect and will be sadly missed by all.

Susan J. Marble

Ms. Susan Nardi, a Red House Reading Teacher, passed away in September. She was a courageous woman who battled the complications of diabetes since childhood. Although declared legally blind, Ms. Nardi continued to work with her Reading students and to team teach with members of the English Department. To students and faculty alike, Ms. Nardi was a caring, talented teacher and a valued, irreplaceable friend.

The objective of the Reading Department at Brockton High School is to help students improve their reading ability so that they can function more successfully in today's society according to Mr. Casey, the department chairperson.

Brockton High School provides its students with an opportunity to strengthen their reading skills whether they are learning to read for the first time or are preparing to enter college and enroll in advanced reading skills programs. The Teachers are pleased to provide assistance to any and all students at B.H.S. "In a time when basic education skills, are being emphasized on a national basis, Mr. Casey would hope that many more students at Brockton High School would take advantage of the reading course selections made available to them. The teachers of the department extend best wishes to the class of "1984."

FINE ARTS DEPARTMENT

The Fine Arts Program is comprised of many courses directed towards those students interested in the Arts. The Program is designed to develop the student's knowledge of the visual and performing arts. The study of art, music and drama adds culture to one's life. The Fine Arts Program offers courses which will influence and remain with a person throughout life. For many, the Program serves as a hobby or an escape.

The Art Department, under the direction of Mr. Thomas Richards offers courses in the visual arts. They range from the beginner levels, for those students who wish to just sample, to the advanced levels for those who have developed a talent for painting or drawing.

The Music Department, headed by Mr. Vincent Macrina provides courses such as music history, music lessons as well as in-school band practice sessions. Mr. Macrina is also the director of B.H.S. marching band which has done much to boost the spirit of the high school through their performance at the Half-

Time Show.

The Drama Department, under the supervision of Ms. Carol Thomas, has creative courses which enhance the student's ability to perform. This department is also the backbone of the Drama club. As an extracurricular activity, it has achieved winning recognition for Brockton High School. Together the departments offer an abundance of creativity.

The Bilingual Program, under the direction of Ms. Janet Coulter, acts to teach non-English speaking students from any background to read, write and speak English. Classes taught by the Bilingual faculty include math, science, American history, language and culture. The classes are taught to the students in their native language as well as in English to initiate transition. The purpose from there is to integrate the students into the mainstream curriculum.

The advantage to students in this program is that they learn much more than English. The students also gain new values from a different culture. Many will be able to go on and pursue careers in International relations because of their bilingual background.

The Health Department, headed by Mr. Vincent Riccardi, deals with both the physical and psychological aspects of the human body as well as dealing with human relations. The health courses are offered to everyone but required only of the juniors. Their goal is mainly to teach the students about themselves and other humans.

Mr. Riccardi feels that if the students can be taught to appreciate and be proud of themselves, they can, perhaps, feel pride in other aspects of their lives as well. They can create larger destinations and strive towards them. This will prepare the students for their lives beyond high school.

All the health courses, including psychology, human relations, first aid and yoga work towards a common goal. They all enforce people relating with other people. Mr. Riccardi believes this is the main reason for the success of the "Pride" at Brockton High.

Home Economics gives students the skills needed to manage on their own outside of an academic education. Mrs. Pratt describes home economics classes as those dealing with parenting, setting up a house or apartment, foods and clothing to name a few. She says these are courses in which both boys and girls can partake of in today's society.

Students gain self-satisfaction when they make an article of clothing. They have a "blouse day" when everyone wears the blouses they've made. They can be proud of their accomplishments in the course.

Mrs. Pratt recommends that students value the family life you have. A good family life is most important now and later in life and, it should be valued highly.

One reason the Boxers exhibit pride and determination is Jack Sarson. Mr. Sarson feels sports is vital to the learning process in B.H.S. With State Championship teams and Suburban League Title holders, the B.H.S. athletics department has achieved success. Mr. Sarson feels people give a part of themselves to their team. DECA

DECA, under the direction of Gerald Faherty, is an elective course offered to all students interested in careers in marketing and distribution. Aside from academics, students work in the business community and work in the school store.

By participating in winning awards in district, state and national competitions, DECA students have brought credit to B.H.S. and the community.

In addition, by offering students the opportunity to purchase school related clothing items among other things, DECA has tried to promote a sense of pride in B.H.S. and in our schools contribution to the community.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

As the final year ends for us at B.H.S., the class of 1984 can look back on our four years as successful and happy ones. We have been through many changes both socially and academically. We, the class officers and executive committee have worked as a team these past four years, united as one.

This year has been our most successful. We started our fundraisers this year by selling the spirit hats during school and at the football games. From there we continued with our D.J. Dance, presenting The Music Fusion. With the winter came our annual merry tele in December. During Christmas vacation, on December 29, 1983 the Senior Semi Formal was held at the Ridders Club in Whitman. As the new year opened, the senior events started. First, with the senior Fashion Show where the area tuxedo shops had a chance to show their different lines of tuxedos and our seniors had a chance to show off their hidden modeling abilities. Valentines Day came along next and so didn't our famous Valenteles to finish off our year of successful fundraisers. Now it was time to concentrate on Graduation and the Prom. The Senior Prom, May 25, 1984, the event we, the class of 1984, had been looking forward to and working hard for throughout the four years here, was held at Lambardos in Randolph Ma. It was a night all who attended will never forget.

On June 3, 1984, Graduation, a very emotional day for all, was our first stepping stone in life, one that we will always look back upon, but never relive.

As we close this door, we, the class officers and executive committee, would like to thank you, the class, for all your help and support throughout the past four years. Good Luck to all.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Junior Class Officers and Executive committee started the year off by keeping the pride alive, and at the same time, raising money for their treasury by the selling of balloons and bumper stickers.

With an active group at work, the Juniors strived in making their Junior prom a tremendous success, while leaving the treasury with an abundance, through the selling of flowers, dances, and candy sales, assuring them of the most prominent, successful and unforgettable final year ahead.

Every class at Brockton High School has certain goals which it would like to achieve. This being our sophomore year, the class of 1986 is taking positive steps to build a strong foundation for our treasury. With the enthusiasm of the student body and the leadership of the class officers and executive committee, we hope our second year at Brockton High School will be very successful.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

FRESHMAN OFFICERS: B. Costello, Vice-President; M. Bernard-President; M. Hale, Treasurer; B. Martin, Secretary

The job of the Freshman class officers and Executive committee is not an easy one. During this past year the class of 1987 has had to develop their constitution, a document whereby the class of 1987 will conduct themselves in the manners it suggests.

Also, during this past year, they have had to learn to discipline themselves to achieve a method of organization in which they can achieve the highest level of accomplishment.

Congratulations class of 1987! You have done a fine job!

PERMANENT PRESS

The Permanent Press is not just a simple school publication. It is a challenge. It is not an easy task to inform the students of Brockton High School. The Permanent Press reports about award winning teams, successful clubs, and other news worthy to students and teachers. The paper's outstanding format and style surpasses that of your average school newspaper. We constantly strive for that extra special story to reach and affect as many students as possible. We try to keep the best possible communication with the students so as to capture important news happening within our school. We believe The Permanent Press is an important tool in giving students a better understanding of the broad spectrum of opportunities students have at Brockton High School.

LITERARY REVIEW

The Brockton High School Literary Review began its year with two new advisors, M. Lincoln and J. Sarantopoulos. With their aid and the leadership of Editor, Thamora Fishel, two superb issues were produced. The combination of perceptive short stories, intricate poetry, and beautiful drawings made this year's issues some of the best ever. Enthusiasm and dedication to good writing are characteristics the staff had in common. The work of Vern Reed, Assistant Editor and Jennifer Saunders, Editor in Training, insured the traditional quality of the magazine. The Literary Review has reached its goal of sharing the creativity of many B.H.S. artists with the Student body.

STUDENT SENATE

It is on the Student Senate that lies the responsibility to handle student problems and to deal with the diverse issues that may arise at any given time, as it is the governing body who has the authority to represent the students of B.H.S. to the administration.

This crucial branch of government is composed of four officers: two senators from each class of every house and four minority representatives.

The role of the senate encompasses many tasks, like helping the community in running two Bloodmobiles every school year, collecting money for organizations like U.N.C.E.F. or C.A.R.E., supervising and carrying out all school elections, and presenting proposals to the Administration.

Meetings take place every Tuesday after school in Y324 and are open to the public to provide a forum for student expression.

The main goal of this very hard working body is to make our school a better place for each and every student.

STUDENT ADVISORY COUNCIL

The members of this committee are elected by general election held in their respective houses. The members, in turn, elect a chairperson among themselves. The chairperson has a seat on the School Committee. The chairperson, in essence, is the voice of the students to the Superintendent of Schools and School Committee. The S.A.C. to S.C. has meetings with the superintendent and acts as the liason for students to the superintendent and school committee. This committee serves an important rule in the education for the students at Brockton High School in representing the students' viewpoints.

SOUTHEASTERN REGIONAL COUNCIL

The Southeastern Regional Advisory Council was devised for the students. Five representatives were elected to sustain the rights of students at Brockton High School. Richard Vogel, Chris Taconet, Greg Linde, Bob Caputo, and Karen Goldberg were the schools representatives. Once a month, these representatives traveled to Lakeville to meet with other representatives from high schools across the Southeastern section of the state. At these monthly meetings, students rights, the school code, and other related matters were discussed.

The Southeastern Regional Advisory Council works with state council, which works with the Board of Education. Brockton High School was also fortunate to have two representatives seated at the State Student Advisory Council: Karen Goldberg and Richard Vogel. This council also was formed to benefit students. The Southeastern Regional Advisory Council is a major benefit to students and should be regarded as a primary source to aide in students' rights.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is composed of over 80 of the finest students in Brockton High School. Members are chosen by a selection committee of administrators and faculty members based on their academic and extracurricular achievements during their high school years. Members of the N.H.S. volunteer to tutor other high school students in the subjects in which the member is most proficient. Various fundraisers are also held to provide a banquet for the new inductees in the Spring.

Drama Club members overflowed into the aisles of the Little Theater as Miss Thomas started off the Drama Club year announcing auditions and sign-ups for the different committees. The determination, hard work, and enthusiasm of the members paid off in the first production: "Scapino", an action packed, fun-filled comedy. The actors, technical crew, set workers, make-up committee, props collectors, ushers, costume committee, and publicity workers united to meet the challenge of a hectic schedule of one acts. To top off the year the Drama Club produced its usual spectacular musical. Once again the Drama Club has shown the excellence of Brockton High School theater with its blend of professionalism and creative energy.

The Technical Crew of the Drama Club is a very important part of this organization. The "Techs" as we call ourselves, work together to create the sets, work the lights, and have one fun time in the process. The "Techs" have been the backbone of each production. We were instrumental in the success of the complex December play, the multifaceted February one acts and the elaborate end of the year musical. The spirit of the B.H.S. Drama club comes through not only during a production, but in the celebration afterwards and in this respect the "Techs" dominate.

SPANISH CLUB

This year was the Spanish Club's most successful. Thanks to the efforts of Mrs. Aleman, the advisor, the Spanish Club increased its membership from fifteen to close to fifty. The Spanish Club was not formed to teach students the Spanish language but to give students a feel for Spanish and Hispanic cultures.

Due to the hard work of the President, Tamara Fishel and Vice-President, Sydney Schmitchel, the Spanish Club has enjoyed many fun and educational experiences. Among these are taco parties, trying out Mexican and Spanish restaurants, making pinatas for parties, fund raising, and trips to Boston and New York. Vital to the fund raising efforts were Denise Girardin, Secretary, and Suzanne Sullivan, Treasurer. In the end, it is the enthusiasm of the members that makes the Spanish Club a success.

KEY CLUB

Key Club got off to a promising start this year after placing 3rd in all of New England. Last year for Key Club activities, membership jumped to almost 160 (up from 35) and the board of directors was expanded from 8 members to 16. Working in cooperation with Brockton Kiwanis, March of Dimes, Ronald McDonald House, The American Heart Association, and Plymouth County Teacher Association, the Key Club hopes to keep its new members busy with charity work in the coming year.

ECOLOGY AND CANOE CLUB

The Ecology Club is those interested in nature. Members of the club go skiing, canoeing, and take hikes. They also learn about nature and go on camping trips. Under the leadership of Mr. Tilley, the Ecology Club strives to better the local environment in their "Clean Brockton" campaign. The club changes with the seasons and activities such as skiing are reserved for the winter, while canoeing and other activities requiring warmer temperatures take place in the fall and spring. The Ecology Club provides an enriching education and great fun for those who take part in it.

Stephen Cords

The Canoe Club, led by Mr. Tilley, allows students an opportunity to learn how to canoe while enjoying the outdoors. The members of the Canoe Club travel to different areas and explore lakes and ponds. They also go on summer trips and hold fund raisers to support the group. The Canoe Club is affiliated with the Ecology Club.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT OFFICE AIDES

The English Office Aides are students who volunteer their time to help the teachers of the English Department. Each student aide works in a particular house office. They do most of the secretarial work such as answering telephones, typing, and mimeographing. They also deliver messages, stamp books and take inventory. Without the help of these students, things would run at a slower pace in the English Department.

The Student Office Aides at Brockton High School are very helpful in performing the duties required to keep the system of the offices running smoothly. They complete the necessary tasks of filing, distributing passes and assisting secretaries and teachers in the school. Much of the work accomplished each day would not be done as quickly or completely without the help of Student Office Aides.

A sense of importance and pride comes with being a Student Office Aid. One feels proud to know they are doing something to benefit the school. It also offers great experience in dealing with people and fulfilling their needs. It is a rewarding opportunity for students to take part in an activity such as being a Student Office Aid.

JAZZ BAND

One of the most prestigious groups in the school is the Brockton High School Jazz Ensemble, under the direction of Mr. Vincent Macrina. It is made up of nineteen of the finest musicians in the high school. Competition for positions is fierce with up to ten people trying out for the same position. In addition to school concerts, the band also plays for the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs and for many various city functions. They have travelled all over the United States and to Europe. In competitions during the last two years in Montreal and Washington D.C., they received a silver and a bronze medal.

Andy Cohen

CHORUS

The Concert Choir, under the direction of Mr. Bruns, is a large, versatile vocal group. The Concert Choir, made up of 80 to 85 voices, is certainly not a stranger to them, but neither is the "pop" sound. Concert Choir sings pieces like "Fantasy", by Earth, Wind and Fire, and also an instrumental arrangement to songs from the movie "Fame".

The group begins its performances at the Junior High Schools. Here, they perform for the students and the faculty, hoping to inspire the youngsters to join in their high school years. The next big step for the Concert Choir is the Christmas Concert. Here, they combine forces with the Freshman Band and the Concert Band. It is truly a show worth watching. After the Christmas Concert, is the group's Exchange Concert which occurs every other year where the Concert Choir travels to another state to sing with the choruses of a certain area for a weekend. The next weekend, the other chorus comes to Brockton and puts on a concert for the Brockton area. It is very educational and fun too! The next event is the Spring Concert Choir and the final performance of the Concert Choir is the Pop Concert. The Band, Repertory Chorus and usually the Folk Ensemble join together for an afternoon of popular music. Concert Choir is fun and it enlightens both the performer and the listener with the magic of music.

MARCHING BAND

The many hours of practice and dedication have certainly paid off for the Brockton High School Marching Band. Under the superb direction of Mr. Vincent Macrina, the Marching Boxers have played to the delight of their many enthusiastic fans. During half-time performances they have displayed their perfection by playing and dancing each week to new and exciting sounds.

The Marching Boxers have participated in many parades in addition to the annual and popular Abington Jamboree.

On behalf of the Marching Boxers, we would like to thank Mr. Vincent Macrina and the Brockton Band Booster's Association for their time and support.

MAJORETTES

The 1983 majorette squad consisted of nine girls under the guidance of Doreen Callahan. The majorette routines were choreographed and led on the field by tri-captains Tracey Nutting and Tina Honeywell. The squad consisted of Sue Schute, Holly Hill, Mary Ellen Rollins, and returning veteran Jennifer Temkin. An innovative dimension to the squad was duet work done by specialty twirlers Stacey Oxenhorn and Sally Everson. The band was led by tri-captain and feature twirler Tara O'Neill who is the reigning Massachusetts state 2 baton champ. To the squad of 1984 we leave you with the thought that "the once shiny baton will one day stand behind the closet door but will be a silent memento of years too swiftly passed of values learned and merits earned." May the squad of 1984 bring twirling fame to Brockton High School.

HALF-TIME DANCERS

The 1983-84 Half-Time squad has been a successful and happy one. This year's squad was made up of fifteen dedicated girls who learned how to work hard together as well as with our advisors, Miss Carol Thomas and Mrs. Susan Ososky, also with Mr. Vincent Macrina and the B.H.S. Band, Majorettes, and Cheerleaders.

The half-time show had two different presentations this year. Our first, with songs of the day such as "Only Time Will Tell", "Manhattan Skyline", "Gloria" and the half-time dancers featured dance, T.S.O.P. The second presentation was a salute to the South. In a joint effort the Half-Time Dancers, Majorettes, Cheerleaders and the Band stretched out across the field to finish the show and season by doing a dance all together to "Georgia".

We would like to wish all the future squads the success and happiness that we have had and we would also like to thank all of our advisors for their continued support and spirit throughout the years.

CHEERLEADERS

The 1983-1984 edition of the Brockton High School Varsity Cheerleaders present a colorful array of support and enthusiasm to the Brockton High School Athletes. This vigorous squad of hard-working and dedicated seniors and juniors have spread a great deal of pride throughout Boxer Country. These girls have cheered for the Boxers throughout thrilling victories, and cried with them after sad defeats, but their winning attitudes have never died. This squad is not just a group of eighteen girls wearing red and black uniforms, it is a union of young women displaying intense pride for their teams.

PRIDE IS ALIVE

The Pride is Alive committee of 1984 was headed by a steering committee of 16 proud students and their advisor Miss Colley. This committee consists of many students who work together to help promote school pride. With the help of these students, a Pep Rally took place on Friday, October 28th, the day before the difficult Leominster game. Students and faculty gathered at Marciano Stadium to cheer on our fabulous football team. We lost that game but the pride was still alive. Many frowning faces left the stands that day but everyone still had faith in our team.

There is no way to explain the feeling of seeing those Black and Red balloons go up in the air at the start of the famous Thanksgiving day game, where we played against Waltham on our home field. After the football season was over, the Pride is Alive Committee went on to promote school spirit. The Pride is Alive continued to cheer on the other sports teams and activities at Brockton High School. The Pride will always be alive at Brockton High School.

FOOTBALL

The Brockton High School Varsity Football team had a successful 1983 season. During every game the entire team gave an all out effort that helped the Boxers maintain a reputation as one of the best football teams in the area.

The team was headed by captains Rich Reagan, Keith Kruskall, Ronnie McMurtry, and Mike Millett. The quarterback of the team was freshman Tommy Colombo, who had a good year at the helm for the Brockton Boxers. The seniors on the team were Robert Vernaglia, Johnny Johnson, Ronny Cormier, Brian O'Malley, Andy Cunningham, Guy Tonucci, Teddy Liapopoulos, and Juan Antunes. The varsity team was aided by junior starters, Pat Khoury, Dave Riccardi, Peter Marciano, Sherrod Rainge, and Greg McMurtry.

The Boxer offense was awesome and was led by seniors Mike Hoadly and Odell Wilson.

With all the contributions these and other teammates added to the B.H.S. Football team of 1983, they will be a hard act to follow.

GIRL'S SWIMMING

The Girl's Varsity Swim Team had a very successful 1983 season. Through the strenuous training of coaches Brendan O'Neil and Bob Coolen, the team, led by Co-Captains Kara Sullivan and Laurie Miller, had an undefeated season.

The team will be losing four seniors this year. However, the underclassmen have shown great promise and will undoubtedly keep up the team's great reputation.

BOY'S CROSS COUNTRY

The 1983 Boys' cross country team finished with a 3-3 record which was good enough for third place in the Suburban League. The teams success can be attributed to the hard work put in by first year coaches Bill Jennings and Gerry MacEachern. The team was lead by senior co-captains, Wayne Nye and Jim Hartman and junior, Tony Centeio. Also contributing to the team's success were seniors Peter Flathers, Hank McKinnon, Sean Norton, and juniors Bill Pugliese, Erik Klaver, Dennis Manning, and Mike Tosca.

Special honors were won by Wayne Nye, who was selected as a member of the Suburban League All Stars, for his top ten finishes in the Catholic Memorial Invitational Meet, Mass. State Coaches Meet, and the Suburban League meet.

GIRL'S CROSS COUNTRY

The competitive and confident girls that comprised the 1983 Girl's Cross Country team helped it tower over most of its competitors in the Suburban League. The team suffered one loss and subsequently was unable to be crowned the Suburban League champs. Comprised mostly of underclassmen such as Lisé Nickerson, Gretchen Devery, Kristyn Mulloy, Patty Martin, and Robin Rodenbush, the team reach unexpected heights. The only two seniors on the team, Lisa Orlando and captain Elaine Centio, always cheered the boxerettes on to victory.

Elaine Centeio

BOY'S SOCCER

Captains, Peter Pouliupoulus and Tom Nightengale headed the Brockton High Soccer-Boxers to a season of hustle and hard work. Because of the young team, the Boxer's were a challenge to all opponents. The Boxer's are expected to be a well experienced strong team in the near future. The team would like to extend thier greatest thanks to coaches Mr. Polisen, Varsity, Mr. Caruso, Junior Varsity and Coach Mr. Young, Freshman, for their long, devoted hours.

GIRL'S SOCCER

The Brockton Girl's Varsity Soccer team, coached by Mr. Fortin, played a very competitive season. The team played some outstanding games against tournament Suburban League Teams such as Newton and Waltham. The team was led by the defensive efforts of goalie Kim Mackedon, sweeper Sherry Palmer, Wing full back Liz Smith, and stopper back Diana Tosca. Offensively strong players were Gidget Cronin, Deidre Hayes and Eileen Fitch. Most of the scoring was done by Suburban League All-Stars Deidre Hayes and Nancy Sheridan. The team's record wasn't up to the standards of the team's goals. However, this didn't let the team down. They thoroughly enjoyed themselves both on and off the field. The Soccer team's underclassmen are hoping to improve their skills and rise to next year's occasion.

GOLF

The 1983 Golf Team had a great year under the guidance of Mr. Eagleson. All varsity players were undergraduates who will return next year as experienced team players. The team's record was 10 wins 2 losses, good for second place in the Suburban League. Rick Wedge and Steven Rodenbush, Co-Captains, led the team with year-end averages of 36.8 and 38. Paul Lehan, Paul Mather, Chris Cruetz, Stewart Denholm, Dan MacAloon, and Jason Carter performed well all season.

Ricky Wedge

VOLLEYBALL

The Lady Boxer Volleyball team had a record of 8-2 in the Suburban League and were 15-2 overall. Their success can be attributed to the outstanding performances by each team member. Tri-Captains Joanne Lynch, Karen Mackedon and Sue Toner led team members Karen Mackinow, Barbara Quinn, Kristen Zapustas, Marie Rello, and Nancy Fanizzi on to a victorious possession of second place in the Suburban League Volleyball standings.

BOY'S BASKETBALL

The Brockton High School Basketball team under the direction of Mr. Ortiz, coach, and Mr. Boeh, assistant coach has played extremely well this season. The team has faced some stiff competition and has a record of nine victories and only three losses. The co-captains of this well-organized team are seniors, George Anderson and Avery McNeil. Senior, Derek Olivacce has played exceptionally well as the team's guard. Outstanding performances were also displayed by seniors Stephen Burrill and Gary Goodwin, who played forward as well as center. Others who contributed to the team's success were seniors, Kevin Fernandes and Rich Santos and juniors, Odell Wilson, Pat Boen and Mike Shelby.

GIRL'S BASKETBALL

Under the direction of coach Ed Gifford and assistant coach Bill Poliseo, the reigning Div I state championship team was assembled. Lead by tri-captains Jane Cahill (forward), Gidget Cronin (guard), and Nancy Gatonguay (guard), the girls' basketball team is favored in the Suburban League. With seniors Suzy Boucher, juniors, Liz Garner, Karen Danilooff and Kristin Zapustas and sophomore Helen Wyner, the team turned out to be very strong both offensively and defensively. Additional help came from seniors Judy Loonie, Karen Goldberg and Kristin Stadelmann, junior Karen Mackinaw and sophomore Lisa Yenish, who put in excellent performances off the bench. The 1983-1984 Girls' Varsity Basketball Team worked well together and had great talent, both individually and as a whole.

HOCKEY

The 1983-84 Brockton High School Hockey team struggled through the first half of the season, yet came on for a strong finish. Much of the clutch/goal scoring was accomplished by senior, Jay Mulligan, as well as the fine play-making of Greg Peters. Solid defense helped the Boxers and, two year starters, Henry Rullo and Bill Flynn, were solid all year. The goaltending of Bob Peters was also powerful. Chris LaPlante and Gary Gouthro also played excellent clutch performances on defense. Mike O'Brian also aided the Boxers with his fine performance in the net. Next year's team looks dynamic with the likes of forwards, Butch Bagas, Bill King, George Eonas, David Burk and Scott Peterson who will head the teams defense.

GIRL'S GYMNASTICS

The 1984 girls gymnastic team was a successful and talented one. Coach Michelle Farley with dedication and hard work led the 84's team on to victory.

The team consisted of eleven hard working and determined girls. Senior Michele Dincecco and Dena Hedges are skillful all around gymnasts who gave great depth to the team. Senior Jamie Peznola also added competing in vault and bars. Junior Cheryl Pepi is an outstanding all around gymnast who strives for excellence. Sophomore Michelle Morali is another superb all around gymnast. Sophomore Lori Neitlich is a strong and determined gymnast on floor and bars. Sophomore Tracy Gibson is a hard working and dedicated gymnast on bars and floor. Sophomore Cindy Raymond is a powerful tumbler on floor. Freshman Kristy Keith is an elegant and graceful gymnast on floor and beam. Freshman Amy Crowell is an unbelievable gymnast with an incredible amount of potential to be the best.

This year's team was a young and talented team about which you will hear more of success and victory in the future.

BOY'S INDOOR TRACK

With the indoor season, the Brockton Track Team had some superb athletics still remaining on the team. Many outstanding runners have left, but they were still able to survive.

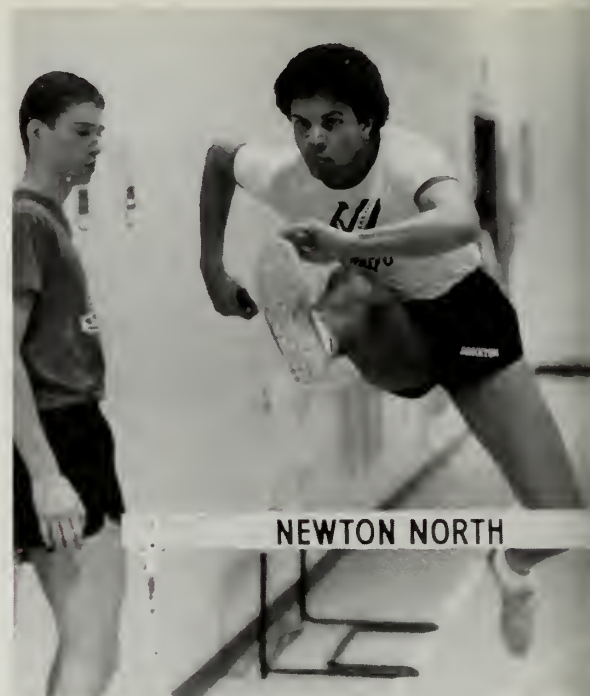

In surviving, we had at least two athletes per event that showed outstanding results.

Leading our team this year was coach Ron Shepard, placing his knowledge where it is greatly needed. In the events following in order are the high hurdles ran by senior Dwayne Cooper and junior Mike Sheldon, the 50 yd. dash- Clarence Walker and Tony Kiramarios, 300 yd. dash- senior Gregg Martello and Ed Zine, 600 yd. run- Jim Hartman, senior, 1000 yd. run- Danny Fortes and Jim Hill, 1 mile- Erik Klaver and Tony Centeio, and 2 mile- senior Wayne Nye and Bill Pugliese.

The field events were ruled by seniors Colman Perkins and Ron Harris, who throw shot-put and high jump seniors, Jim Pratt and Sean Norton. The relay team consists of Gregg Martello, Tony Kiramarios, Ed Zine, Clarence Walker, Jim Hartman, and Paul Blanche.

The team captains tried to instill quality and spirit in the team. These fine competitors tried very hard themselves to dominate their individualized events. The team captains were Colman Perkins, Wayne Nye, Gregg Martello, Jim Hartman and Dwayne Cooper.

With dedication and spirit we would like to thank all who participated actively and contributed their outstanding efforts in their events.

GIRL'S INDOOR TRACK

The Brockton High School Girl's Indoor Track Team endured a rough season. The distance runners were stronger this season, more so than the sprinters. The team consisted of thirty-five members, seven of whom were injured at the start of the season. The co-captains of the team were Elaine Ceneio and Emily Valiquette. Kim Mackedon, a senior, led the team to victory on a few occasions with her exceptional performances on the high jump. Other contributing seniors were Doreen Dantonio, Debbie Fishman, Regina Fulgeniti and Lisa Orlando.

Next years team which will include Robin Rodenbush, Gretchen Devery, and Tracy Thomas will continue to strengthen and improve their record. Whether the team won or lost this year, the athletes were always alive with Boxer spirit. They also owe a great deal of gratitude to their coach, Mr. O'Donnell, who always instilled Boxer pride in the team.

BOY'S SWIMMING

The Varsity Swim Team finished its undefeated season by out touching Brookline in a grulling battle for the Suburban League Title last year. Ed Sullivan and David Weene each took three first places at the championships while Andy Sack, Mark Hamilton, Paul Levie, Mark Levie, and Lee Pinstein impressively contributed to Brockton's victory.

This years team shows great promise with its 5-0 record and hopes to recapture the title again.

WRESTLING

This years varsity wrestling team is off to another great year. Already the team has a dual meet record of 7-0, a first place finish in the Catholic Memorial tournament and a second place finish in the Lowell Holiday tournament.

The 1983-84 Boxers are led by new Coach Paul Jellison and assistant Coach Joe Fitzsimmons. Returning for the new season are many veterans including Mark Callachan (114 lbs.), jr. captain Mike Sarantopoulos (128 lbs.), Mike Pimental (140 lbs.), Frank Middleton (140 lbs.), Gary Kruskall (140 lbs.), Mitch Possick (147 lbs.), Steve Dunn (147 lbs.), Bill Allen (157 lbs.), Juan Antunes (169 lbs.), Ralph Chubuck (300 lbs.), and one of the most impressive wrestler's in Boxer's history, capt. Rich Dunn (134 lbs.) who is looking to continue his already amazing undefeated record of 58-0, and also a shot at state and New England title. Along with these veterans are some very solid rookies, in the likes of Mike McCarthy (100 lbs.), Duke Calle (169 lbs.) and Jim Watt (187 lbs.).

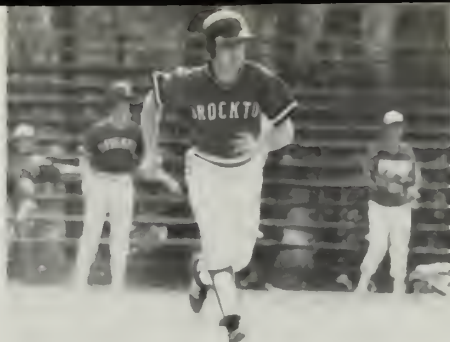

The Boxers are a tough team, but still must face stiff competition when they lock up with their powerhouses such as Quincy, Waltham, Norwood and Burlington. However, the Boxers should still look for a strong showing in the sectional and state tournaments.

BASEBALL

The 1983 baseball team earned a record of 17-5 and a trip to the South Sectional Championship. The team was led by a number of Suburban League all stars, such as Sean Barry, Mike Khoury, John Kiley, and Sherrod Rainge. In 1984 coach, Tom Pileski, plans to build his team around six returning veterans. Patrick Buer, John Ferrara, and Paul Cosgrove are expected to head the infield squad, with both John Ferrara and Paul Cosgrove also serving as the nucleus of the pitching staff. Sherrod Rainge and Ronny McMurtrey are to fill key spots in the outfield while Peter Marciano returns to the catching role. These six lettermen, with the addition of some underclass men, should make Brockton a prime contender for another Suburban League title.

BOY'S TENNIS

The 1983 season for Boy's Tennis was a very successful and rewarding effort. The team as a whole feels that Coach Fortin is largely responsible for their achievements. No opponents had it easy when facing the aggressive B.H.S. squad. The season was, in short, a fall. In the end, the team was left with a great deal of good times and a feeling of having been challenged.

At this time, the team would like to express its great appreciation for Francis "Buster" Fortin. Good luck to the rackets of 1985 and beyond.

GIRL'S TRACK AND FIELD

The 1982 Spring Track team reigned over the Suburban League and defeated every team: Comprised of much talent and skill, the team easily grasped the Suburban League title. Captains Kelly Fairfield and Roberta Harback led their team by always scoring in their events. Tracy Thomas, Helen Weiner, Amy Cessarini, and Nancy Punter, the team's strongest sprinters, also scored well in their events. Emily Valiquette dominated the field events in the Suburban League. The hurdlers comprised mostly of underclassmen such as Doreen Dantono, Marybeth Walsh, and Karen Mackedon promised success for the future team. Though the distance runners lacked depth, Elaine Centeio, Jaguie Belanger, and Robin Rodenbush always excelled in their confrontations. It was a well-rounded and confident team. Congratulations Girls!

BOY'S TRACK AND FIELD

The Brockton Mile Relay team consisting of junior Gregg Martello and seniors Mark Doucette, Todd Motley and Rodney Simpson had outstanding performances last year. They remained undefeated in the state throughout the season. Each member showed in their individual events. Gregg Martello showed in the 100 meters, Todd Motley in the 220, followed by junior Derek McClinton and Mark Doucette with Rodney Simpson dominating the 440. Junior Jim Hartman set the pace for the 800 followed by seniors Paul Rodenbush and the "Swing Man", Gregg Noone. Senior Mike Woodman had his share of victories in the 2-mile, while Wayne Nye made track behind him. Tony Centio finished off the distance runs in the mile with Henry MacKinnon following in his footsteps. Dwayne Cooper and senior Chuck Parker hurdled their way to the finish line in the 120 high hurdles. Senior Mark Petti sprang his way into the air in the pole vault, while Colman Perkins hauled the shot put. Rodney Simpson showed his talents in the Triple Jumps and sophomore Chris Bennet in the long jump. Other varsity competitors were Paul Blanche in the 330 low hurdles, Bill King in the Javelin event and Mike Sheldon in the 120 high hurdles. The coach for the team, Mr. Delgado, will be missed but not forgotten by all the team members.

Gregg Martello

1st. Row: M. Young, R. Moore, E. Shea, H. Schuberth, K. Caffrey, C. Pecevich, M. Soloman, L. Kent.
2nd. Row: Coach Gifford, M. Rello, N. Gastonguay, J. Boughan, J. Loonie, E. Kent, L. Garner, L. Yenush,
M. Guadette, D. Salamone, Asst. Coach, J. Shea, Asst. Coach

SOFTBALL

The Girl's Softball Team once again clenched the Suburban League title. The superb defense of Captains Heidi Schuberth and Kara Caffrey, as well as Lynda Kent at short stop, Robin Moore in Centerfield, and freshman, Lisa Yenush at second base, led the team to the second round of the State Tournament. Pitchers, Merle Solomon who will graduate, and Jeanne Boughan, who will be returning this year as a senior, were on the mark as they pitched the team to victory. Without catcher Maria Rello, the pitchers would have been unable to have been so effective.

Under the leadership of Co-Captains Nancy Gastonguay and Ellen Kent, the team plans to capture the Suburban League title and to go on to the State Tournament in the upcoming season.

EVENTS

JUNIOR PROM

"We've Got Tonight" by Bob Seger was the theme song chosen by the Class of 1984 for their Junior Prom which was held on April 29, 1983 at the Lantana in Randolph, Mass. Over 300 people attended.

Dinner was served at eight o'clock. The meal consisted of a fruit cup, salad, chicken, potatoes and corn. An ice cream puff with fudge sauce was for dessert. The night was filled with socializing and dancing to the music performed by the band, Gold Rush.

Our Junior Prom was a great success. For those who attended it was a wonderful evening full of glamour and excitement. The occasion made for a memorable and outstanding end to our junior year.

IRENE

In May of Nineteen Eighty-three,
the Brockton High School Drama Club presented the smash Broadway hit, IRENE, with all of the splendor, romance and Irish charm that can only be produced by a Drama Club with such high caliber.

This rags to riches story, and it's success depended highly on the hard work contributed by many nameless individuals, many of whom are now graduating seniors.

The graduating seniors of Brockton High School's Drama Club, as well as its underclassmen participants, thank all of IRENE'S supporters and patrons, and extends it's most special and loving thanks to Director Carol Thomas, technical director Thomas Richards, and Choral Director Penny Knight.

You can tell the folks around this neighborhood
Here's one local girl who's bent on making good . . .
I have the love to fill an ocean and stardust in my eye
So no matter what may happen, I'm giving it a try.

Scapino

SCAPINO

Explosive. Zany. Just an all-round swinging play. SCAPINO. Its hilarious plot united lovers and brought tears of laughter to the audience.

The play featured Stephen Colombo as the coniving, yet loyal servant, Scapino. The two unsuspecting old gentlemen, played by Robert Caputo and David Michaels, were always victims of his mischief. The plot revolves around the gentlemen's love-sick sons, David Weene and Ed Wise, and their voluptuous, poverty-stricken lovers, Sydney Schmitchel and Debbie Shapiro. Scapino's scheme to join these lovers is aided by his sidekick Sylvestro, Dennis DiBurgo. An extra touch of comedy was added by the comings and goings of a pompous, old bum, Tom Brady and a prudish maid, Narissa Ali. The entire play was served by the ensemble of waiters and waitress: John Cahill, Larry Souza, Brian Boucher and Andrea Kelley.

SENIOR SEMI-FORMAL

One of the huge successes of our senior year was the winter senior semi-formal held on Thursday, December 29, 1983 at Ridder's Country Club.

Over 300 people attended this anticipated event which included a delicious buffet with an open coke bar. A great variety of popular music was provided by D.J. Bob Robertson, also known as "The Entertainer".

The dance floor was crowded all night. It was a festive occasion that drew everyone closer together making the Semi-Formal a huge party of friends. Everyone was looking forward to the new year that would bring our class' graduation. As we look back at our senior year, all who attended the Semi-Formal will carry the memory of this wonderful event.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

People celebrate the holiday of Christmas in various ways. Some decorate trees, others sing carols and, like the Brockton High School Band, many students prepare a concert.

Starting at the end of the football season, these members have but only a month to practice pieces in time for the event. This festivity takes place in the third week of December and is open to the public. Joining the B.H.S. Symphonic Band is the Freshman Band and Choir. The concert brings out the joys of Christmas and at the same time distinguishes students as musicians.

Pieces as the "Nutcracker" and "Sleigh Ride", which were done in 1983, filled the auditorium with holiday cheer and left the audience with Christmas spirit.

JUNIOR USHERS AND USHERETTES

The Junior Ushers and Usherettes consisted of the class officers, executive committee and randomly drawn names to constitute twenty ushers and forty usherettes who successfully lead the Class of 1983 into their most memorable day. This was graduation day, June 5, 1983.

The ushers wore silver gray tuxedos provided by Tuxedo's by Merian and the girls were properly attired in dusty rose gowns from Alyce Reizian. These colors were previously selected as the class colors for 1983.

It was an honor for these juniors to participate in this important event and to start taking over the role as seniors.

THE END

It has finally come to the end of our senior year.
 It'll be hard to say goodbye without a single tear.
 This year has been a special one; different from the rest.
 Right now until next year we'll call it the best.
 Everyone has made new friends some relationships will last.
 But the sadness will come next year when they're not in your class.
 The summer has been waited for by all us beach bums.
 Thinking of the sad goodbyes, we can't wait 'til our reunion comes.
 But we're finally graduating and going our separate ways.
 We'll always have the memories of B.H.S. and treasure the remaining days.

You've gone through the years
 Complaining about school and how much you've hated it.
 And now the time has finally come.
 A time where you will remember all the happy moments.
 Treasure those special nights, the parties and proms, and all the fun times you've had.
 But now, the sad day has come we all must part; only hoping to see each other in the future
 You will go your own way following your dreams.
 All I can do is wish you good luck until we meet again.
 Congratulations class of 1984.

Cheri Pessin '84

I feel me near to some High Thing
That earth a waits from me,
But cannot find in all my journeying
What it may be.

I get no hint from hall or street,
From forest, hill, or plain,
Save now a sudden quickening of my feet, now some wild pain.

I only feel it should be done,
As Something great and true,
And that my hands could build
it in the sun,
If I but knew.

THE FUTURE

Who knows what lies ahead?
With each passing day we dread,
Decisions, decisions: to what school shall I go?
What will I become; how do I know?

Advice we receive from teachers and friends,
Can sometimes confuse us to no easy end.
Someday soon I hope we will find,
Answers to these questions with some peace of mind.

*I was angry with my friend:
I told my wrath, my wrath did end.
I was angry with my foe:
I told it not, my wrath did grow.*

*And I watered it in fears,
Night and morning with my tears;
And I sunned it with smiles,
And with soft deceitful wiles.*

*And it grew both day and night,
Till it bore an apple bright;
And my foe beheld it shine,
And he knew that it was mine,*

*And into my garden stole,
When the night had veiled the pole:
In the morning glad I see
My foe outstretched beneath the tree.*

GRADUATION

The high school days of homework and football games will soon be done
 Without friends they wouldn't have been half as fun
 Going out on Friday nights and partying all night long
 By the end of the night we would always hear our song
 Soon we will don our caps and gowns- maybe even a tear
 With the thought that our friends will not always be so near Promising with letters to stay in touch
 We will all miss each other very much
 And when we graduate with the class of 84
 We'll think of the friends that we'll see no more
 So fast the high school years have slipped by
 But the great memories we have will never die

WORDSWORTH

Mrs. Eugenia (Jean) Franciosi

Mrs. Franciosi was an English department aide at Brockton High School for 10 years. She was responsible for organizing, locating and taking inventory of books and typing. In addition to these duties, she served to manage the whole English department. She solved daily problems of management for over 50 people. She was remarkably efficient and organized and would even perform individual favors for people when she had time.

Everyone who knew and worked with her would agree that Mrs. Franciosi was one of the nicest people you could ever hope to meet. Despite the fact that she had had much surgery, she took care of others and their problems. She was a devoted mother who was involved in many different organizations and committees. Mrs. Franciosi will be greatly missed by everyone, but her service and wonderful personality will always be remembered.

Pink Floyd: The Final Cut

Many of us during our years at B.H.S. We were lucky enough when 6,000 American troops overcame the surprisingly fierce Cuban resistance to retrieve some 600 American medical students stranded on the tiny island of Grenada. The bombing of the U.S. Marine Headquarters in Beirut, Lebanon created much turmoil. We will not forget the controversy surrounding the Korean airliner that was shot down by a Soviet fighter killing two-hundred and sixty-nine people.

National news that excited us all was the story of physicist Sally Ride who became the first American woman to travel in space. Australia II became the first challenger to win the America's Cup ending the traditional win of the U.S.

This was the year of the 1984 Winter Olympics in Sarajevo, Yugoslavia, and Summer Olympics in Los Angeles, U.S.A. It was also an election year with the incumbent President Reagan running for a second term on the republican ticket against democratic candidates including Walter Mondale, John Glenn and the Rev. Jesse Jackson.

Broadway, the musical "A Chorus Line" filled the theater district of the city's most famous Broadway show. Television generated a new series "The Day After", a graphic depiction of nuclear war that drew one hundred million viewers.

One of the most important changes occurred in the music between 1983 and 1984. Michael Jackson's Thriller album gave us six top of the chart singles boosting him to become the greatest artist of the year. Other famous groups that topped the charts were Culture Club, The Police, The Rolling Stones, Duran Duran, Journey, David Bowie and many others.

There were a variety of fads, styles and types. The Valley Girl look, the Preppy look and the Punk look prevailed. Mini-skirts came back into style along with cropped pants and big painted jewelry. The dressed up look was also the focus for both men and women. There was truly a collage of styles in the early 80's.

Time has passed and the experiences we have had, shadow in our memories. We have completed our four years at Brockton High, a school which silhouettes all that has expired inside its walls. A greater part of our lives echo in the hallways.

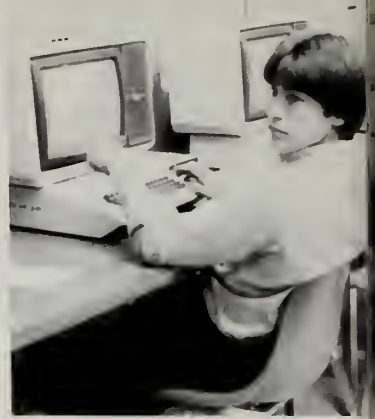

In the beginning, B.H.S., was an exciting new adventure; an unknown territory to explore. There were new people to meet and new procedures to undertake. The discoveries we made helped us expand our own individual desires. We broadened our talents and participated in a variety of school activities. We faced new Challenges with fervor and spirit. It was definitely a time of trial and error and our senior year will probably be the most memorable. New opportunities came our way and we had the privilege of being upper classman to set examples for others. Our senior year was the most eventful. Many of us participated in the Semi-Formal and Senior Prom which were exciting occasions. Yet, the advent of graduation was most anticipated. It was the final scene of our high school years.

Recapping our experiences we feel both joy and sadness. We'll look back and remember the best and hardest years of our lives. We have learned a great deal at B.H.S. and we must take and use our knowledge to continue onward. The horizons are distant and far between as we travel our separate ways. The experiences we encounter will be reinforced by the preparation we gained throughout our years at Brockton High School. There will be new adventures and untrodden territory to explore but we'll always have the memories of Brockton High. Goodbye and Good Luck Class of "1984"!

"Do it yourself or have it done for you!"

Dear Seniors:

Along with the Yearbook Staff, it is my pleasure to present to you the 1984 yearbook. Many long hours of hard work and dedication have been put into this book. I hope that all of you will enjoy this book as much as we've enjoyed creating it.

I would like to thank Editors Susan Marble and Cheri Pessin (Copy), Sandy Pucillo and Jennifer Johnson (art) and Regina Fulginetti and Allyson Wedge (Bus.). I would also like to thank Section Editors Leanne Boyle, Jean Caffelle, Marietta Calisto, Diane Colombo, Dyana Kanevski, Ellen Kent, Kendra Masaitis, and Linda Pereira.

Our book benefited from the work of these people and all others who contributed to it. Special thanks to Ms. Maria Anania, the Yearbook Advisor. Without her help this book would not have been possible.

Sincerely yours,

Carla Flammini
Editor
